Other Publications

Authoritative, relevant and insightful, E&T (Engineering & Technology) provides news, features, commentary and analysis on every aspect of science, engineering and technology making it the most comprehensive publication of its type. The IET's award-winning flagship magazine is read by members, business partners and stakeholders.

The IET also publishes the award-winning Flipside magazine, a magazine for teenagers. Educational, weird, wonderful and right up-to-date, Flipside encourages an interest in STEM by showing how science and technology underpin the world we live in.
